The HON Company and Unika Vaev Announce Partnership Agreement

NORWICH, CT March 2020 – The HON Company and Unika Vaev are delighted to announce they have signed a partnership agreement. HON and its nationwide network of trade partners will market and sell certain of Unika Vaev’s decorative acoustic products.

Says Wick Wolfe, President and COO of Unika Vaev, “Given HON’s legacy of helping people work smarter and more comfortably, we were especially pleased when HON recognized our commitment to making people happier and more productive in the workplace by providing multiple functional and aesthetical acoustic solutions. HON’s broad reach into markets and territories that previously we have not properly served, strengthens our resolve to create soundscapes in which people may “Hear Yourself Think”.

“We are thrilled to be able to partner with Unika Vaev and bring new acoustic solutions to our Trade Partners and their customers. As offices are continually adapting to open plan furniture solutions, finding ways to provide privacy and sound dampening can become a challenge. HON’s partnership with Unika Vaev allows us to meet the requested needs of our customers with a partner brand we trust.” – Troy Williams, Product Marketing Leader, The HON Company
